

PAGUR FESTIVAL

The International Tourism Professions Competition Pagur is a dynamic and inspiring event organized by the Bulgarian Association for culinary culture that brings together talented chefs, pastry chefs, waiters, and bartenders from around the world. The competition celebrates creativity, professionalism, and excellence in the hospitality and tourism industry, offering participants the opportunity to demonstrate their skills, innovation, and teamwork in a global environment. Through live demonstrations, practical challenges, and professional evaluation, the event promotes high standards and cultural exchange within the tourism sector.

We warmly invite students in the field of tourism and hospitality to take part in this exciting international competition held on 07.10-11.10.2026 in hotel Grifid Noa, Bulgaria. Join us to showcase your talent, gain valuable experience, and connect with industry experts and peers from different countries. Be part of a unique celebration of culinary art, service excellence, and hospitality!
